DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because it contains an embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code; see e.g., page 84, line 22. Applicant is required to delete the embedded hyperlink and/or other form of browser-executable code. See MPEP § 608.01.
2. The specification is objected to as documents have been improperly incorporated by reference. In particular, the specification states at page 88:

20 All references disclosed herein are incorporated by reference in their entirety.

Such omnibus language fails to specify what specific information applicant seeks to incorporate by reference and similarly fails to teach with detailed particularity just where that specific information is to be found in each of the cited documents. As set forth in Advanced Display Systems Inc. v. Kent State University (Fed. Cir. 2000) 54 USPQ2d at 1679:

Incorporation by reference provides a method for integrating material from various documents into a host document--a patent or printed publication in an anticipation determination--by citing such material in a manner that makes it clear that the material is effectively part of the host document as if it were explicitly contained therein. See General Elec. Co. v. Brenner, 407 F.2d 1258, 1261-62, 159 USPQ 335, 337 (D.C. Cir. 1968); In re Lund, 376 F.2d 982, 989, 153 USPQ 625, 631 (CCPA 1967). To incorporate material by reference, the host document must identify with detailed particularity what specific material it incorporates and clearly indicate where that material is found in the various documents. See In re Seversky, 474 F.2d 671, 674, 177 USPQ 144, 146 (CCPA 1973) (providing that incorporation by reference requires a statement "clearly identifying the subject matter which is incorporated and where it is to be found"); In re Saunders, 444 F.2d 599, 602-02, 170 USPQ 213, 216-17 (CPA 1971) (reasoning that a rejection or anticipation is appropriate only if one reference "expressly incorporates a particular part" of another reference); National Latex Prods. Co. v. Sun Rubber Co., 274 F.2d 224, 230, 123 USPQ 279, 283 (6th Cir. 1959) (requiring a specific reference to material in an earlier application in order to have that material considered a part of a later application); cf. Lund, 376 F.2d at 989, 13 USPQ at 631 (holding that a one sentence reference to an abandoned application is not sufficient to incorporate from the abandoned application into a new application). (Emphasis added.)

Accordingly, the cited documents are not considered to have been properly incorporated by reference and as such, have not been considered with any effect towards their fulfilling, either in part or in whole, the enablement, written description, or best mode requirements of 35 USC 112, first paragraph.

Election/Restrictions

3. In response to applicant's amendment to the claims, claim 118 has been rejoined and newly added claim 124 has also been included with the group elected.
4. Newly submitted claims 125 and 126, as well as amended claims 121 and 122 correspond to Group VI, which was not elected by applicant in their response of 30 November 2001. Accordingly, claims 121, 122, 125 and 126 are withdrawn from consideration. Claims 59, 71, 73-75, 83, and 118-120 and 123, which were also subjected to the restriction requirement and were not elected by applicant, are also withdrawn from consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claim 124 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Attention is directed to the decision in University of Rochester v. G.D. Searle & Co. 68 USPQ2D 1424 (Fed. Cir. 2004) at 1428:

To satisfy the written-description requirement, the specification must describe every element of the claimed invention in sufficient detail so that one of ordinary skill in the art would recognize that the inventor possessed the claimed invention at the time of filing. Vas-Cath, 935 F.3d at 1563; see also Lockwood v. American Airlines, Inc., 107 F.3d 1565, 1572 [41 USPQ2d 1961] (Fed. Cir. 1997) (patent specification must describe an invention and do so in sufficient detail that one skilled in the art can clearly conclude that “the inventor invented the claimed invention”); In re Gosteli, 872 F.2d 1008, 1012 [10 USPQ2d 1614] (Fed. Cir. 1989) (“the description must clearly allow persons of ordinary skill in the art to recognize that [the inventor] invented what is claimed”). Thus, an applicant complies with the written-description requirement “by describing the invention, with all its claimed limitations, not that which makes it obvious,” and by using “such descriptive means as words, structures, figures, diagrams, formulas, etc., that set forth the claimed invention.” Lockwood, 107 F.3d at 1572.

7. For convenience, claim 124 is reproduced below.

124. An isolated nucleic acid molecule comprising a nucleotide sequence selected from the group consisting of (a) SEQ ID NO:681, (b) nucleotide sequences which hybridize under stringent conditions to a nucleic acid molecule consisting of SEQ ID NO:681 and which code for a cancer associated antigen precursor, (c) nucleic acid molecules that differ from the nucleic acid molecules of (a) in codon sequence due to the degeneracy of the genetic code, and (d) complements of (a), (b), or (c).

8. Claim 124 has been interpreted as encompassing virtually any “cancer associated antigen precursor.” A review of the specification fails to locate an adequate written description of which fragments of SEQ ID NO: 681 actually encode any cancer associated antigen precursor.

Art Unit: 1634

9. In addition to not providing an adequate written description of the relevant fragments, the specification does not provide an adequate written description of how these cancer antigen precursors are to be used, and which cancer antigen precursors in fact have any utility.

10. For the above reasons, and in the absence of convincing evidence to the contrary, claim 124 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

11. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

12. Claims 67 and 124 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Patent 5,474,796 (Brennan)

13. Brennan, column 9, discloses an array of isolated oligonucleotides that comprise all possible 10-mers. By default, the array of Brennan fairly encompasses all 10-mers now claimed by applicant.

14. For the above reasons, and in the absence of convincing evidence to the contrary, claims 67 and 124 are rejected under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Brennan.

Conclusion

15. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

16. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
